

Quick tips for your next interview

Be prepared

It helps convince the interviewer you know your stuff, which can increase your chance of getting invited to the next round

Be your best self

Your behaviour & body language can say a lot about who you are. Be authentic & confident. You got this!

Keep your answers to 1 1/2 - 3 minutes

Interviews can go quick, so be insightful and concise... the interviewer can always ask follow up questions.

Be positive about your past

Explain past job changes & the work you did in a positive way.

You're a super STAR

By framing your interview answers in the STAR framework, you help the interviewer quickly understand all the amazing things you have achieved.

SITUATION

What was the background & why was action required?

TASK

What task(s) were needed to get the desired results?

ACTION

What did you do and how did you do it?

RESULT

What did you achieve and what was the outcome?

Bridge the gap

Focus on sharing examples about your skills, experience & achievements that best relates to the job advertised.

Ask questions...

Hiring managers want to know that you're thinking about what its like to work in their team... so ask them questions.

Prepare for the weakness question

We all have some... Its about how self aware you are of your weaknesses & how you overcame them.

Work your way through a question

Your thought process is just as important as the answer for a question. If you get stuck explain what you're thinking.
